

Announcing the return of Open Painting Sessions and the Constant Creative Discount card.

Washington Studio School is pleased to announce the return of Open Painting with the Model Sessions. These sessions will be held starting August 20th on Thursdays, 7-10pm, and will run continuously throughout the Fall term. These evening sessions are without instruction and give artists of any level the opportunity to acquire more studio time working with the figure. Each class will begin with a series of shorter poses that focus on gesture and will then move gradually to a longer pose at the end of the session. Advance registration is not required, but will ensure your place in the session, call (202.234.3030) or email (admin@washingtonstudioschool.org) to register. Drop-ins are welcome as space allows.

Also, continuing throughout the summer and Fall term are the popular Open Drawing with the Model Sessions. These sessions are held on Mondays, 7-10pm, are also without instruction and will be run in the same manner as the Open Painting Sessions.

NEW to Washington Studio School, to accommodate those of you who will want to take either, and/or take both the Open Drawing and Painting Sessions, and will be taking full advantage of all the extra figure time, we have created the Constant Creative Card. This savings card entitles the bearer to a discounted price to attend ANY Open Drawing or Painting Session for a 6 month period. Regularly, the Open Sessions are $18 per class but you may purchase the sessions in 'packs' for a savings. Buy a pack of 4 sessions for $65 (regularly $72), 8 sessions for $130 (regularly $144), and 12 sessions for $180 (regularly $216), or you may purchase an unlimited pack for $600, this will get you into any and all the Open Drawing and Painting Sessions you can handle for a full 6 months. Simply choose the level of savings you want, pay for the sessions, receive the discount card, then show the card to the moderator at the beginning of each class. This is also a great gift idea for that artist in your life.

Contact Washington Studio School for more information about the Constant Creative Card and to register for the Open Drawing and Painting Sessions. Call (202.234.3030) or email (admin@washingtonstudioschool.org).

The Fall 2009 Class Schedule is out and registration is now open. Sign up early for classes as space is limited. You can view the entire schedule and course description by visiting our website.

Between the Fall classes and the Open Drawing and Painting Sessions, we hope you join us in being a Constant Creative. We look forward to seeing you at the school.

Sincerely,

washington
